Hi Cody,

I have tried everything possible to get paid the 1000.00 for the props you wanted to try first. I shipped them to you so would have them for the weekend 3/12/09 you tried them and sent me e mails and text you were waiting for money to come in and you would send me the 1000.00 plus 40.00 shipping.

This went on for months I offered to take your carbs at a value you were selling them plus 300.00 difference you agreed, I also told you if I sold the carbs for more I would give you the difference back, but you did not send carbs or money. I found out that you sold carbs. And you still tell me that no money is coming in.

I have sent you text messages and left you voice mails and you do not respond.

You said you would return them and give me tracking numbers you have not done this either.

I am left with legal options I called the AZ Attorney General and they sent me to the Oro Valley Police department who have informed me to make a police report here at the local level report them stolen and the Oro Valley police and The Camdenton Police will work together to recover the theft of the props and allow me to press charges.

I don't know what else to do at this time, I get off work at 2:30 today and will bring all e mails and text messages to The Camdenton Police department at that time to start the theft report.

Jim

Thank You
